

Trade Association Participation

2022

During 2022, Alaska Air Group paid dues to the following trade associations of more than $25,000 and who spend 10 percent or more of their revenues lobbying: Airlines for America, Regional Airline Association, the Association of Washington Business, and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Based on the information the Company received for 2022, the following amounts of Alaska Air Group dues or payments used for lobbying were as follows:

- ❖ Airlines for America: $382,735
- ❖ Regional Airline Association: $26,920
- ❖ Association of Washington Business: $18,750
- ❖ U.S. Chamber of Commerce: $12,250